

Senior FRAUD Test

How much do you know about fraud?

1. What type of people do con artists go after?

- Wealthy people
- Poorly educated people
- Intelligent people

2. The crimes that occur the most are:

- Murder
- Rapes
- Frauds
- Burglaries

3. Most people who fall prey to a con artist:

- Always get what they deserve
- Are all greedy and gullible
- Just were not thinking
- All of the above

4. Some SCAM warning sign questions to ask are:

- Does the person giving me this information have any thing to gain by lying to me?
- If this person is lying to me, how will it affect my life?
- Do I have to give my answer now?
- Do they get angry when I say no?
- Did I win a contest I don't remember entering?
- All of the above?
- None of the above?

5. What best describes how a fraud victim might feel?

- Stupid and unwilling to report their crime to the police.
- Betrayed.
- Angry, hurt, and unable to ever forget what happened.
- All of the above.
- None of the above.

6. What best describes your belief about fraud?

- I am too smart to fall for any type of scam.
- Falling prey to a con artist is possible, but very unlikely.
- I'm concerned about fraud and have taken time to obtain some facts about the topic.
- I don't think anything about the topic because it's a waste of my valuable time.

7. What is the best way to prevent fraud?

- Make others earn your trust and confidence.
- Don't allow others to do your thinking, and know who you're dealing with.
- Always consider what the person making you an offer has to gain and what you have to lose.
- Demand time to reconsider and to have information verified.
- When in doubt, error on the side of caution.
- All of the above.
- None of the above.

